

Workplace Safety and Health Update - Week of July 13, 2015

July 17, 2015

We are pleased to bring you our Workplace Safety and Health Update. With experienced OSHA and MSHA attorneys located strategically throughout the nation, Jackson Lewis is uniquely positioned to serve all of an employer's workplace safety and health needs.

Aggregates Producer Gets $65,000 EAJA Award

A judge has awarded a sand and gravel operator $65,218 in attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in successfully defending itself from an allegation by the Mine Safety and Health Administration that the agency was justified in citing the operator for impeding an inspection of the operator's wash plant in Montana.

OSHA Reporting Rule Producing Insights and Challenges

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration's new injury reporting rule has produced insights into injuries in specific industry sectors, as well as provided a continuing challenge to the agency over how it responds to injury reports.

©2015 Jackson Lewis P.C. This material is provided for informational purposes only. It is not intended to constitute legal advice nor does it create a client-lawyer relationship between Jackson Lewis and any recipient. Recipients should consult with counsel before taking any actions based on the information contained within this material. This material may be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.

Focused on labor and employment law since 1958, Jackson Lewis P.C.'s 950+ attorneys located in major cities nationwide consistently identify and respond to new ways workplace law intersects business. We help employers develop proactive strategies, strong policies and business-oriented solutions to cultivate high-functioning workforces that are engaged, stable and diverse, and share our clients' goals to emphasize inclusivity and respect for the contribution of every employee. For more information, visit <https://www.jacksonlewis.com>.