Your Peers or Your Peeps?

Have you attended seminars that set out recommended compliance with EEO laws? You know the rules, and you know the risks. Have you ever wondered what has actually happened in real cases that were tried to a jury? We will analyze several employment law cases that were tried to verdict before a jury in recent years. While we will touch on a myriad of EEO laws, this program will have a special focus on accommodations - but not the most commonly known -- accommodations with respect to religion and gender. Learn what worked, what did not, and what you can do to avoid the courthouse.
