

Politics at Work – Practical Tips for Managing Employee Speech During an Election Year

Past Details

August 26, 2016

8:00 AM - 9:30 AM MST

Jackson Lewis P.C.
950 17th Street
Suite 2600
Denver, CO 80202

Registration Fee: $25.00

Credits

CLEPending
HRCIPending
SHRMPending

Election season can be a tricky time for employers. With constant media coverage and polarizing candidates, spirited employee discussions can turn nasty, potentially disrupting the workplace and causing legal headaches. Issues that arise from political speech in the workplace range from discrimination and harassment to free speech and bullying. This presentation will provide “dos and don’ts” to help guide employers over the next several weeks and keep polarizing political discourse from disrupting your workplace.

Contact Us for More Information

Please contact Ramlah Bari at Email or 703-483-8377.

Speakers

Veronica T. Hunter

Principal
Houston 713-650-0404
Email

Timothy M. Kratz

Principal and Office Litigation Manager
Denver 303-876-2210
Email