

---

Bonnie B. Edwards

KM Attorney
New York Metro
White Plains*
*Admitted only in MA
P 914-872-8059
F 914-946-1216
Bonnie.Edwards@jacksonlewis.com

---

Practices

Immigration

Services

COVID-19
New York Metro

Education

Boston College Law School
J.D., 1990
cum laude, Order of the Coif

Boston University
M.A., 1973

Tufts University
B.A., 1971

Admitted to Practice

- Massachusetts - D. Mass., 1991
- Massachusetts, 1990

Bonnie B. Edwards is the Knowledge Management (“KM”) Attorney for Jackson Lewis P.C.’s Immigration Practice Group, and is based in the White Plains, New York, office of Jackson Lewis P.C.

Ms. Edwards has represented clients in business immigration matters for more than 10 years advising corporate, university and individual clients on all aspects of employment-based immigrant and non-immigrant visa petitions, compliance and mergers, acquisitions and expansion, including outbound immigration matters.

Prior to working in the immigration area, she was a labor and employment litigator and was the executive director of an independent research institute focused on the study of the history of science and technology.

During law school, Ms. Edwards was Executive Editor of the Boston College Law Review and, after law school, she clerked for the Honorable Raymond J. Pettine in the U.S District Court for the District of Rhode Island.

Professional Associations and Activities

- American Immigration Lawyers Association

Published Works

- “Sexual Harassment Investigations: How Far Can You Go?”, Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education Publications (2002) [Co-Author]
- “The Lobbying Manual, A Compliance Guide for Lawyers and Lobbyists,” American Bar Association (1993) [Contributing Author]
- “Rehabilitation as the Essence of a BFOQ Defense: Torres v. Wisconsin Department of Health & Social Services,” Boston College Law Review (1989) [Author]