Jackson Lewis' Corporate Counsel Conference addresses the significant legislative and regulatory developments in workplace law and provides opportunities for discussion and collaboration about these topics.

Our upcoming program will feature a robust discussion about the recent increase in sexual harassment claims in Silicon Valley, Hollywood and beyond. Joining us to discuss this issue is Ana Navarro, political strategist and commentator.

We will also address the recent trends in workplace law, and what to expect from the Supreme Court and administrative agencies in the year ahead. To help provide context on these issues, we will be joined by Robert Costa, moderator of Washington Week and national political reporter for The Washington Post.

This is a program you don't want to miss, so register today!
