Registration Fee: $150 per attendee, includes breakfast, lunch, cocktail reception, parking and materials.

Join Jackson Lewis P.C. for a look ahead to the anticipated trends for government contractors in 2018 and beyond. The full day program will include discussions on pay equity, cybersecurity concerns specific to federal contractors, immigration, joint ventures in government contracts, an executive order update and additional areas impacting the workplace.

Join a multi-disciplinary team of attorneys from national employment law firm Jackson Lewis, along with guest speakers from the government contracting firm Smith Pachter, for a full day of presentations, interactive discussions, and practical solutions addressing these and other pressing labor and employment developments.

This unique, fast-paced, intermediate-to-advanced level seminar is geared towards in-house counsel, management and HR professionals.

Jackson Lewis reserves the right to refuse participation to anyone other than a bona fide management representative.
