Join Jackson Lewis and Elliott Davis for a webinar where we will explore how the recent tax legislation impacts employers. We will look at tax credits for paid leave, changes in fringe benefits, changes to deduction rules and the disappearance of the individual mandate. As rolling deadlines loom, there has never been a better time to understand what is perhaps the most significant piece of legislation under the Trump Administration to date.

Learning Objectives

After attending, participants will be able to:

- Discuss common issues employers will face in light of tax reform.
- Review current company policies for potential changes.
