The pay equity movement continues to gain momentum, particularly in the media and entertainment industry. Speakers Stacey Bastone and Stephanie Lewis will share insight on how employers can review their current pay structures and how to adjust if necessary, providing industry-specific data and best practices for addressing pay equity concerns. Employers will come away from this session with a deeper understanding of pay discrimination in the media landscape and what issues to consider when making pay decisions going forward.

Topics

- Current entertainment, television, film, and mainstream media pay equity concerns
- The steps involved with pay equity analysis
- Investigating any disparities to make pay adjustments if necessary
