Over the past few months, we have seen a whirlwind of activity from OFCCP. Under new leadership, the Agency has conducted town hall meetings, provided guidance to contractors on a variety of topics and issued new directives that directly affects how the Agency reviews contractors' compliance with the affirmative action regulations.

Join us on the fourth Tuesday of every month throughout the year for our "Contractually Speaking" series – a 20 minute "quick-fire" review of all things OFCCP. We will discuss new regulations, enforcement trends, and provide meaningful and practical advice to help you achieve your compliance goals.
