Jeanette R. Youngblood is of counsel in the Sacramento, California office, of Jackson Lewis P.C. She provides advice and counsel to private and public sector employers on issues related to employment law, including wage and hour issues, termination and disciplinary analyses, audits of employer practices and policies, handbook reviews, reductions in force, commission, bonus and piece rate plans, disability management and administration of leave entitlements.

In addition, prior to dedicating her practice to advice and counsel, Jeanette litigated extensively in federal and state courts representing both plaintiffs and defendants. Her litigation experience includes writ proceedings and appeals. Jeanette also has significant experience conducting workplace investigations.

After law school, Jeanette clerked for the Honorable Cliff Young, Justice of the Nevada Supreme Court.
