

Social Distancing and Employee Safety Protocols to Ensure California Employment Law Compliance

Archived Details

May 12, 2020

10:00 AM - 11:00 AM PST

View Recording

Continuing education credit was offered for the live broadcast of this seminar.
You cannot earn credit for watching the archived webinar.

Credits

CLEPending
HRCIPending
SHRMPending

NOTE: No CLE credit can be earned for watching recordings of past webinars.

Join Jackson Lewis P.C. for a complimentary webinar on issues facing California employers in balancing pandemic safety protocols and employment law compliance. Our employment law attorneys will discuss the complexities of returning to work during a pandemic.

This webinar will also address the legal and practical issues of complying with the myriad California employment law requirements, while also following best practices for protection against COVID-19.

Topics

- Notifying furloughed employees regarding their return to work
- Workplace modifications required to provide safe workplaces for employees
- Developing social distancing and other employee hygiene protocols and policies
- Wage and hour considerations for safety protocols
- Reimbursement requirements for protective face coverings and related items
- Requirements for face coverings in the workplace
- Other protective protocols, such as medical and temperature checks
- Responding to employees who refuse to return to work
- Local California ordinances pertaining to employee hygiene, such as City of Los Angeles requirement for additional breaks for hand washing

Contact Us for More Information

Please contact Jess Simpson at Email.