

Labor Relations in the COVID-19 Era

Archived Details

June 25, 2020

2:00 PM - 3:30 PM EST

In the wake of COVID-19, workplace safety, job security and unemployment have risen to the forefront of the national conversation. Employee activism is on the rise, and “grassroots” protests and labor unions have begun fanning the flames of fear and corporate distrust over these deeply personal issues. As businesses reopen, employers must be prepared to address the increased anxieties and new priorities of returning employees.

Please join us for this complimentary one-hour webinar to discuss proactive steps your organization can take to avoid disruptions and third party interference through positive employee relations, effective communication and other effective strategies.
