The legal landscape has changed dramatically since the start of 2020, and employers continue to navigate around a new normal in a challenging environment. Join Jackson Lewis P.C. for a three-day webinar series, where we will address major changes in California employment law in 2020, provide insights on ever-changing workplace rules, and offer guidance on how employers can prepare for 2021.

2021 Readiness Kit: Top Laws and Issues Employers Need to Prepare For

This program will include a panel of Jackson Lewis attorneys, discussing some of the most critical issues and legislative bills that affected California employers in 2020 and how to get ready for 2021.

Topics include:

- Social media and the First Amendment
- Pay data reporting requirement
- Cal OSHA COVID-19 notification requirements
- COVID-19 Workers' Compensation Presumption
- Expanded mandated reporter requirements for HR professionals
