

Biden's Impact on Employers

Joseph R. Biden was sworn in as the 46th President of the United States January 21, 2021. The new administration jumped right in with leadership appointments and executive action having an immediate, significant impact on labor and employment law.

Overview

More legislative and regulatory activity, as well as legal challenges, can be expected during President Biden's time in the White House. Stay up to date on the latest developments influencing, and often mandating, how we work with the insights, publications and resources offered by our attorneys below.

©2021 Jackson Lewis P.C. All rights reserved. Attorney Advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome. No client-lawyer relationship has been established by the posting or viewing of information on this website.

*The National Operations Center serves as the firm's central administration hub and houses the firm's Facilities, Finance, Human Resources and Technology departments.