Kevin Lee is an associate in the San Francisco, California, office of Jackson Lewis P.C. With over a decade of litigation experience, his current practice focuses on representing employers in a broad array of employment matters, including discrimination, harassment, retaliation, whistleblower, unfair competition, and contractual disputes. Kevin also represents companies in investigations before administrative agencies, including the California Civil Rights Department and Equal Opportunity Commission.

Prior to joining Jackson Lewis, Kevin gained litigation experience in a variety of legal fields and industries, including personal injury, construction, transportation, business disputes, and professional liability while representing private and public entities, as well as individuals.
