Timothy R. Mulliner is Of Counsel in the Omaha, Nebraska, office of Jackson Lewis P.C. Having served as in-house counsel for a Fortune 500 company before re-joining private practice, Tim brings a combination of solutions-based strategic insight and hands-on experience to every matter. He is steadfast in his belief that whatever the measure of success for each client, reaching the ultimate goal can best be achieved through partnership.

Known for his holistic approach and emphasis on maintaining a stable workforce, Tim provides efficient and cost-effective solutions to day-to-day issues facing employers, always with a focus on minimizing exposure and maximizing outcomes. Keen on sports analogies, Tim believes “defense wins championships” and applies that philosophy to his legal practice, helping employers stay ahead of potential liabilities before they become costly battles. He embraces cooperative engagement, but when a dispute arises, Tim has a proven track record of achieving results. A trusted advisor and advocate, Tim works closely with employers to tailor legal strategies to their business and industry-specific challenges and has extensive experience working with clients in the transportation and logistics, construction, hospitality, and gaming sectors, among others.

A proud native of Nebraska, Tim lived in Las Vegas, St. Louis, and Nashville before returning to his home state. Outside the office, Tim is a music enthusiast, traveler, and loyal (if often heartbroken) Miami Dolphins supporter. In his downtime, Tim also enjoys spending time with his Alaska Husky, Maikoh, exploring new trails and enjoying the open air.
