Brandon U. Campbell is a principal in the Miami, Florida, office of Jackson Lewis P.C. He regularly handles single-plaintiff and advice & counsel matters, including Title VII, ADA, ADEA, FMLA, FCRA, FLSA, complex disability, leave, and health accommodation issues, complex arbitration issues, defamation, negligent retention, Florida common-law employment/harassment litigation, and non-litigation matters such as RIFs, employment agreements, and severance agreements.

Brandon has also presented on some of the most prestigious platforms in the employment law community, which include the employment law conferences of the American Bar Association and the National Bar Association. Brandon is also a member of Jackson Lewis's disability, leave, and health management practice group, having co-authored multiple practice group articles while also addressing complex subject matter issues on behalf of the practice group.

Before joining the Firm, Brandon served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Timothy J. Corrigan of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida in Jacksonville.

Most recently, Brandon has obtained either dismissal or summary judgment on seven employment discrimination claims filed against some of the firm's largest clients, which include the reported decisions below:

- Sprankle v. Embraer Exec. Aircraft, Inc., Case No. 6:23-cv-2285-CEM-EJK (M.D. Fla. July 31, 2024);
