Juliana C. Gaige is an associate in the Houston, Texas, office of Jackson Lewis P.C. With a foundation in workers' compensation gained during her tenure with the Texas Attorney General, Juliana has evolved into a seasoned litigator, consistently delivering practical solutions and steadfast commitment to her clients' interests.

Juliana guides employers through the nuances of discrimination, retaliation, and wage claims litigation. She adeptly handles workplace injury claims against Texas workers' comp non-subscribers. She represents employers in OSHA investigations and contesting cited violations, and also defends employers in OSHA whistleblower claims of retaliation.

As a native Houstonian, she brings a thorough understanding of the local landscape to her practice.
