Kelsey F. Morris is an associate in the San Francisco, California, office of Jackson Lewis P.C. She represents employers in civil litigation and administrative proceedings involving various employment law matters, including discrimination, retaliation, harassment, and wrongful termination, as well as wage and hour disputes.

Prior to joining Jackson Lewis, Kelsey worked as an associate at a personal injury law firm, where she gained extensive experience through all stages of litigation, including discovery, depositions, dispositive motions, pleadings, and court appearances.

While in law school, Kelsey focused her studies on civil litigation and clerked for the Honorable Garrett L. Wong of the San Francisco County Superior Court.
