Damón Gray II is an associate in the Raleigh, North Carolina, office of Jackson Lewis P.C. As the son of a United States Marine, Damón was raised with a strict code of conduct and learned the value of honor and commitment. His deep appreciations for these values are what led him to become an attorney.

While at law school, he was a member of the American Association of Justice Trial Team and a representative of the Wake Forest Student Bar Association. In 2015, he participated in the Wake Forest Litigation Clinic during which he interned at the Forsyth County District Court as well as with Hutchens Law Firm in the practice area of civil litigation.
