Mehreen Mazhar is an associate in the Dallas, Texas, office of Jackson Lewis P.C. Her practice focuses on representing employers in workplace law matters, including preventive advice and counseling.

Prior to joining Jackson Lewis, Mehreen's practice primarily consisted of defending physicians and other healthcare providers in medical negligence cases, board matters, and peer review matters. Additionally, Mehreen's experience includes representation of commercial clients in personal injury cases and business disputes.

During law school, Mehreen received the Public Interest Fellowship from Texas A&M, which allowed her to intern for the Texas Attorney General's Office. She competed on the law school's traveling Mock Trial team for three semesters, where she continued to develop her interest in litigation.
