Washington State Governor Jay Inslee has issued a new Proclamation extending his previous Stay Home – Stay Healthy Proclamation that restricted certain social and recreational activities, closed non-essential businesses, and required social distancing at essential businesses.

All of the restrictions imposed in the original Proclamation are extended until 11:59 p.m. on May 4, 2020.

For details of the various restrictions, see our article, Washington: Stay Home Proclamation Due to COVID-19.
