As the COVID-19 pandemic's many implications for the workplace and the way we work begin to become clearer, Jackson Lewis surveyed healthcare industry employers on how the industry has been addressing employee requests for time off during this difficult time.

It has never been more crucial for healthcare employers to balance the need to staff facilities against the desire to foster positive employee relations.

Jackson Lewis attorneys are available to help clients find creative solutions that address their immediate and long-range business needs while minimizing legal risk.
