Despite the pandemic, California has continued to bring a tsunami of new developments and trends for the workplace. This session will review the key compliance developments to ensure employers rise to the challenge for 2023, including:

1. How to prepare for the California tsunami of new developments and trends for the workplace;
2. A review of agency audits and litigation trends in California so employers can be proactive, not reactive, to what is on the horizon
3. Presentation of a road map of classic California compliance areas to help avoid litigation.
