

Workplace Training

An organization's employees are its greatest assets. With the ever changing federal and state laws, training your employees helps ensure compliance, reinforces individual accountability and mitigates certain risks.

Workplace training has long been a cornerstone of Jackson Lewis P.C.'s preventive strategy. Our training programs are tailored to each client's workplace and budget to create strategic and practical approaches to the issues they currently face and to help employers anticipate the workplace law of tomorrow. Experienced trainers design, develop and conduct effective, interactive and engaging training programs covering a wide range of topics from harassment prevention to positive employee relations. We routinely conduct "train-the-trainer" programs, enabling a client's internal team to conduct workplace training the Jackson Lewis way.

We offer a variety of customizable and interactive training options including live in-person trainings and simulations, confidential executive sessions for high level employees and live online webinars with real-time Q&A.
